

The Monkey and the Umbrella

WORKBOOK

by

Terry Bell

The Monkey and the Umbrella

Grammar: Prepositions Where is it?

The thief is inside the house.

The fish is inside the bowl.

The thief is outside the house.

The bird is outside the cage.

Exercise 1

Complete the sentences with the words from the box:

through

up

down

under in front of behind

1.

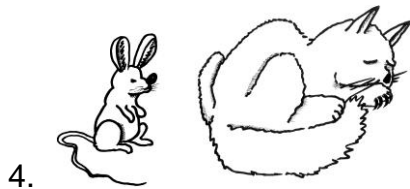

The dog is running _____ the stairs.

The truck is going _____ the hill.

The thief is hiding _____ the table.

The mouse is _____ the cat.

The cat is _____ the mouse.

The thief is hiding _____ the door.

The dog is jumping _____ the hoop.

Vocabulary

1. What do we call the side of the river, where people can walk?

2. Which word in the story means 'took something which belongs to someone else'?

3. What word describes someone who does bad things to other people?

4. What do we call part of a tree, which comes out from the side or the top and looks like an 'arm'?

5. What do we usually use a 'parachute' for?

6. Explain what 'inside-out' means.

7. What do you think 'upside-down' means? You can draw a picture if you wish.

8. SPLASH! is the noise something makes when it falls into water.

Try to find out which noises these words describe:

CRASH!

THUD!

A-CHOO!

OUCH!

Can you find any others?

Comprehension

1. Where did Lek and Yai go for a walk?

2. What did they take with them?

3. Why did they take that?

4. How did Lek and Yai feel when the monkey took their umbrella?

5. Where did the monkey take the umbrella?

6. What did he do with the umbrella?

7. What happened to the umbrella?

8. What happened to the monkey?

9. How did Lek and Yai feel about that?

10. Which three words together did Lek and Yai say to show they were happy something bad happened to the monkey?

Writing

Exercise 1 Gap-fill

Complete the story with words from the box:

tree	bank	walk	branch	umbrella
-------------	-------------	-------------	---------------	-----------------

One day Lek and Yai were going for a 1._____. It was a hot day so they took an 2._____. They were walking along the river 3._____. They were very happy. Suddenly a monkey came down from a 4._____ and stole the umbrella. The monkey was smiling but Lek and Yai were angry. The naughty monkey climbed up the tree. He was sitting on a 5._____ at the top of the tree. Then he wanted to open the umbrella.

Exercise 2 Verbs

Complete the story with the correct form of the verb (in brackets):

The monkey 1._____ (jump) off the tree. The umbrella 2._____ (open) like a parachute. But the parachute was not strong. It 3._____ (turn) inside-out. The monkey wasn't so happy now. He fell down towards the ground. The unhappy monkey 4._____ (fall) into the river. Lek and Yai were so happy. They laughed and laughed and laughed.

'Serves you right, you naughty monkey!' they 5._____ (say).