Ali's Day

Grammar: The Simple Present Tense

I get up.
You get up.
He gets up.
Ali gets up.
She gets up.
It gets up.
We get up.
They get up.

We use the Simple Present Tense to talk about things which happen all the time, or regularly.

e.g. Ali always gets up at six o'clock.

I play football with my friends every day.

Look at the question form:

What time	do	I you we they	usually get up?
	does	Ali she it

Look at the negative form:

I You We They	do not (don't)	get up at seven o'clock.
He She It	does not (doesn't)

Exercise 1
