Market Day

Grammar: some / any

We use some in positive statements:

*I've got some oranges in my bag.
I'm going to buy some strawberries, too.*

We use any in questions and negative statements:

*Have you got any durians? I love durians.
I'm not going to buy any mangoes. They're very expensive!*

We use some when we offer something (even if it looks like a question):

*Would you like some more coffee?
Could I give you some more biscuits?*

Also, we use some when we're asking for something:

*Could I have some water, please?
Can you give me some money?*
